

The Mokichi Okada Association Wellness Center's Annual Forum
"The Role of Integrative Medicine in Creating Healthy Communities"

Friday, November 18, 2011 {10AM-4PM}
&
Saturday, November 19, 2011 {10AM-1PM}

LAX Westin Hotel / 5400 W. Century Blvd.

Exploring the benefits of an Integrative Medical approach for a Healthier America

Opening Remarks: Dr. Kazuo Nitta, MD, PhD

Nitta Institute of Integrative Medicine- Director (Japan)

Featuring:

Dr. Kiyoshi Suzuki, MD, PhD;

MOA Health and Science Foundation- President (Japan)

Bill Rosendahl, Los Angeles City Council District 11

Dr. Ka-Kit Hui, MD

UCLA Center for East-West Medicine

Dr. David Y. Wong, MD

MOA Wellness Center- Medical Director

Health Integration Center- Director & Physician

Dr. Juan Reyes, MD- Obstetrics & Gynecology

Susan K. Brislin, OTR/L, USC & CSU Dominguez Hills

Chef Dorit, Certified Living Foods Chef & Author

Panel Discussion: Including a range of community health service, educational and research projects by medical professionals, teachers, and MOA staff and volunteers in communities here and around the world.

Free & Open to the public.

For more information or to RSVP
Call 310.574.9900 OR Email forum@moawellness.org